School Warden Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to Marie Keogh, who has been appointed school warden to Holy Trinity N.S.

We hope everyone will be nice to Marie, and follow her directions and guidance each morning and afternoon. Tá fáilte romhat Marie.

Thank You

The Dress –Up Day and Hamper Raffle raised €1205.34. We thank you for your contributions.

Parent-Teacher Meetings

Parents/ Guardian will shortly have the opportunity to make an appointment to meet with your child's teacher. These meetings will once again be over the telephone and will take place on assigned days between the 15th and 25th of November.

Each child has received a hard-copy 'Pre-Meeting Form' today.

Please complete this form and return to your child's teacher in your child's school bag as soon as possible. These completed forms ensure a more comprehensive, and meaningful engagement during the parent/ teacher meeting.

Parents may select an appointment time for the meeting using the Aladdin app. The Parent/ Teacher Meeting Appointments page will go live on Aladdin on Monday November 8th.

The Clontarf Half Marathon

This year Paul Mescal, Catriona Quinlan and Edel Scott will be again taking to the roads to run a Half Marathon. This time round they will be taking part in the Clontarf Half Marathon on Saturday 27th November, all in aid of Holy Trinity. Please find link below to Go Fund Me page which has been set up to raise much needed funds for our school. Please show them your support and feel free to share link with family and friends.

I thought you might be interested in supporting this GoFundMe, <https://gofund.me/7da74808>.

Thank you all for your continued support
